YOU'RE INVITED:

Management Skills Mini-Conference

The Center for Local Government invites you to attend our 2026 Management Skills Mini-Conference for managers, supervisors, and leaders. This event will be held live, in-person on Tuesday August 11, 2026, at the Mason Community Room in the Mason Municipal Center (6000 Mason-Montgomery Road, Mason, OH 45040); located on the entry level floor.

Leadership Beyond Expertise: Building Resilient Teams and Effective Supervision

Explore the management skills that distinguish effective leaders from technical experts, including fostering collaboration, navigating uncertainty, and building resilient, high-performing teams. Participants will also hear from an experienced supervisors panel who will share practical insights on leadership, communication, conflict resolution, employee motivation, and the transition from peer to supervisor. This interactive session offers valuable strategies and real-world advice for current and aspiring leaders.

Registration: 8:30 AM to 9:00 AM

Management Skills Seminar led by Jeffrey Stec: 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Lunch: 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM (provided)

Panel Discussion moderated by Cindy Schisler: 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM
